Bonneville Power Administration

BPA delivers reliable, affordable and carbon-free hydropower produced in the Columbia River Basin to communities across the Northwest.

Affordable - As a self-funding, nonprofit federal power marketing administration within the Department of Energy, BPA covers its costs by selling its products and services. This cost-based model allows BPA to offer affordable power and transmission services that drive the region's economy.

Carbon-free - The federal hydropower system is the Pacific Northwest's biggest source of clean energy. BPA markets wholesale electrical power from 31 federal dams in the Northwest that are operated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation. We also market power from one nonfederal nuclear plant and several small nonfederal power plants. The n...

Heritage Health was largely conceived through Lidwin Dirne's pioneering efforts and sheer determination.

Lidwin's neighbor, Mary Ellen, a single mother living with disabilities, couldn't afford basic, preventative healthcare. After Mary Ellen's death, Lidwin was outraged and she decided this injustice should never happen again.

Lidwin mobilized the community and dedicated her life to providing health care to those who couldn't afford it. In 1985, Lake City Health Care opened its doors as a volunteer-run, free clinic and operated two evenings per week. The clinic was supported by local donations, in-kind contributions, pro-bono legal services, and volunteer primary care providers.

□Patients lined up around the block to be seen as the demand for services skyrocketed. Soon ...

The Idaho Department of Lands is a Natural Resource Agency. When Idaho became a state, Congress granted Idaho endowment trust land for the sole purpose of funding specified beneficiaries, which are largely public schools. Idaho's original land grant included 3,650,763 acres. Since then, ownership has been consolidated and some land has been sold, with the proceeds reinvested. This land forms the core of a perpetual trust, with the land generating revenue for nine endowment beneficiaries forever.

Natural Resource Law Enforcement (Game Warden)

The mission of the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife Enforcement Program is to protect our natural resources and the public we serve.

With more than 160 commissioned law enforcement personnel around the state, the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife Police enforce laws and regulations related to human-wildlife conflict, hunting and fishing, and the protection of fish, wildlife and habitats.

WDFW officers conduct law enforcement in state and federal waters, parks, and forest lands. Our unique capabilities, assets, and jurisdiction mean our officers also respond to public safety issues such as dangerous wildlife
